About the Company:

Rashmi Metaliks Ltd., part of the Rashmi Group, is a leading name in the manufacturing and industrial sector, with operations across steel, iron, and energy. We are expanding our Legal & Compliance team and are seeking highly experienced Civil Lawyers who can represent and safeguard the company's interests in legal and regulatory matters, particularly at the Calcutta High Court.

Key Responsibilities:

- Represent the company in civil legal matters before the Calcutta High Court and other forums as required.
- Draft, vet, and review contracts, legal documents, pleadings, affidavits, writ petitions, etc.
- Handle disputes related to property, contracts, regulatory compliance, and labour/civil litigations.
- Liaise with external counsels, regulatory bodies, and internal stakeholders to ensure legal compliance.
- Advise senior management on legal strategy and risks for corporate and commercial matters.
- Support due diligence and legal vetting processes in land acquisition, leasing, and infrastructure-related matters.
- Maintain accurate documentation and regular updates on ongoing cases, hearings, and outcomes.
- Monitor changes in relevant laws and regulations and provide proactive legal guidance.
- Assist in drafting policies and SOPs to ensure strong legal governance.

Required Qualifications & Experience:

- Bachelor's degree in Law (LL.B) from a reputed university; a Master's degree (LL.M) will be an added advantage.
- Must have practiced actively in the Calcutta High Court with proven track record in civil litigation.
- 15 to 20 years of total legal experience, including corporate legal experience with large Indian manufacturing companies.

- Should have handled legal issues related to land, labour, industrial disputes, contracts, and regulatory matters.
- Familiarity with industrial laws, company law, and real estate law is highly desirable.

Skills & Attributes:

- Excellent communication skills (written and verbal) in English and Bengali.
- Strong legal acumen, analytical thinking, and courtroom presence.
- Well-versed in drafting and interpreting legal documents.
- Ability to handle pressure and work independently as well as in a team.
- Background in good schooling and college education will be preferred.
